Wg Cdr Rahul Monga and Wg Cdr Anil Kumar still stuck in Shenyang on Thursday

Bad weather continued to haunt Wg Cdr Rahul Monga and Wg Cdr Anil Kumar as they have been forced to spend a forced rest day in Shenyang on Thursday.

This means that the expedition has so far lost seven days. However, if all goes well and weather gets clearer in China, the pilots are expecting to recover at least four days in due course.

On Wednesday, the microlight was forced to take a detour to Shenyang as strong surface winds did not allow them to land at Changchun.

On Thursday, they were supposed to go straight to the next destination Jiamusi.

We will bring you the latest updates from the IAF RTW Expedition.
