Wg Cdr Rahul Monga and Wg Cdr Anil Kumar landed in Bangkok at 1025 hrs IST

IAF duo safely landed in Bangkok at 1025 hrs IST on Monday, a day later than scheduled.

The duo will rest during the day and head off towards Danang in Vietnam. They were supposed to be in Bangkok on Sunday and Monday was supposed to be their rest day.

However, bad weather over Thailand had forced them to retreat to Yangon on Sunday.

They will cover a distance of 850 km when they leave Bangkok and leave for Danang in Vietnam.

Earlier, speaking to Indiatimes News Network from his satellite phone, Wng. Cmdr. Rahul Monga said, "It was raining here yesterday. Today the weather seems to be fine and we should reach for our next destination if all goes well."

The expedition was flagged off on June 1 from the Hindon Air Base near Delhi by the Chief of the Air Staff F H Major.

The pilots are attempting to cover a distance of 41000 kms in 64 days that includes 45 days of flying. If all goes well, they will come back to Delhi on August 4.
